NEW CHURCH IS NOW CERTAIN

Higgins Donates Site and Catholic Will Erect Modern Edifice Adjoining Loretto Academy

WILL COST NEAR $25,000

Plans were put under way yesterday for the erection in the near future, of a thoroughly modern Catholic church, to be located on Tombstone canyon. The edifice will cost in the neighborhood of $25,000.

It is through the liberality of Thomas Higgins, a former resident of Bisbee and one of the best known men in this section, that the church was reached to build this church. It became known yesterday that Mr. Higgins, who owns considerable property in this city, has donated the site for the new church. The site is located on Tombstone canyon, and adjoins the holdings of the Loretto academy. The land is one of the most valuable sites in the city outside of the business district and will make an ideal site for a church. It is near the street car line.

The site was inspected yesterday morning by a committee consisting of Father Meier, M. E. Cassidy, M. J. Brophy, F. E. Jones, A. T. Sowell, Robert Hennessy and Ralph Ziemer. The latter has been commissioned to make a complete survey of the ground for the purpose of getting a general idea of the locations of the building and the size of the surrounding grounds. This work will be done up immediately after the raising of a fund for the building of the church will also be taken up immediately.

As regards the church building, only tentative plans have so far been made. It was reported yesterday that the building will be constructed of brick. It will be thoroughly modern. It is not yet known when bids will be asked for or when plans will be drawn up, but every effort will be made to start the work as soon as possible. A conservative estimate on the cost of the building is $25,000, although the total cost may go considerably beyond that figure. There is also some talk that the site of the old church located on School Hill, will be sold for the purpose of adding to the building fund. The site is a valuable one and is close in. The present Catholic church was built seventeen years ago. It is of wood and, besides having deteriorated to a considerable extent it is now too small for the present needs. Considerable repair work has been done on the building, but it was realized that it could not be used for its present purpose much longer. Plans for the erection of a new edifice have been discussed for some time but not until the liberality of Mr. Higgins in donating a site was made known did these plans come to a head.

Sontag Points Right Way--Famed Outlaw Illustrates Folly of Crime

"There's nothing difficult about robbing a train. The most trouble I ever had was about forty minutes work in getting an express messenger to 'come over.'"

"It's easier to rob a train right in the suburbs of a big city like Chicago than to hold it up in the middle of Arizona."

These are a few opinions by an expert on the fast dying art of train robbery, expressed last night by George Sontag, the last of a band of three who for years terrorized California and the middle west with the boldness of their holdups and who for ten months stood as an armed power in the mountains of northern California.

"The holding up of trains looks easy; the booty is large, but it doesn't pay," is how Sontag always ends his talk. Sontag has even reduced the pay down to dollars and cents, or rather only cents, per day. For the time put in and the work done in holding up trains in his career, Sontag says that he received just 25 cents a day.

Mr. Sontag is here to deliver a series of lectures at the Royal theater. Four years ago he was pardoned from the Folsom prison, California, and since that time he has been delivering lectures on the folly of a life of crime.

Sontag's lecture is a good one, and it gets the crowds. Wherever he appears, there are packed houses to greet him, and Bisbee is not likely to break this rule. Those who hear him at the Royal will not regret going.

WIDELY KNOWN CAMP COOK DEAD

The funeral of A. A. McNeal, who died at the Calumet hospital in Douglas on Friday afternoon of last week, occurred at Douglas on Sunday. A number were in attendance and accompanied the remains of the pioneer to their last resting place, several Bisbee friends being among these.

Acute pneumonia, resultant upon an attack of grip to which the sufferer paid little attention, was the cause of death. That he was seriously ill was not realized by either McNeal or his friends until his condition suddenly became such that he was hastened to the hospital. His arrival there was too late to permit of successful combat of his trouble, death resulting in a few hours.

A. A. McNeal died at the Calumet hospital yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock of acute pneumonia and funeral services were held this afternoon at the Ferguson undertaking parlors. Deceased was 70 years old, and one of the best camp cooks in all the west, having been in the Douglas country for 35 years and employed by various concerns, for the past three months having been with the T. P. Belvins company in the Chiricahua mountains. His final illness commenced suddenly last Wednesday at Rodeo, and he was hastened here for treatment, being too far gone, however, for medical aid to avail. Carl Wilson of the San Simon Cattle company, for which deceased had recently been employed, accompanied his old friend in Douglas and did all he could for him to the end.

Mr. McNeal has a brother at Globe who was wired of the sudden demise. He was a native of Georgia, and a general favorite wherever known, owing to his genial disposition and ability to entertain with an unlimited fund of historical anecdotes.

Returns From East
C. J. Casey, head of the dry goods department of the Fair store, returned to the city from New York where he has been for three weeks purchasing goods. Mrs. F. H. Davis, also of the Fair and head of the millinery department, will arrive home today. She has been in New York and other eastern cities for six weeks, seeing the latest creations in the way of fashion and buying goods for her department in the big Main street emporium.

SPLENDID MID-WEEK PROGRAM AT LOWELL

The bill shown today at the Lowell theater, to continue to Thursday, is vastly superior from a point of sustained interest to any bill ever presented at this popular amusement resort. In the line of securing something that is good the management now employs Mr. Juan Garcia, a finished violinist, director and composer, who with his orchestra gives the patrons of the Lowell theater the best music to be heard in any theater in the district.

Mr. Geo. H. Dandurand, a splendid baritone singer has also been added to the Lowell's entertainers and the management announces the addition of a lady singer in the very near future. Apparently expense is a minor consideration with the owners of the Lowell theater, for talent and pictures that will appeal to the public are secured, even though it inflates the expense account to a considerable degree. In short the Lowell theater gives a wonderfully fine performance for the nominal price of admission. And now for the motion pictures shown: "The Spendthrift's Reform" is a beautiful story that can only be appreciated by seeing it portrayed on the screen. "The Dog Show" is a picture that everyone enjoys seeing. "Anne Crawls Upstairs" is a pathetic story from the Edison studio. "The Bark Foreman" a dandy western picture and a credit to the makers and last but by no means least is our old friend Bunny of Vitagraph fame. In this picture Bunny has some very laughable experiences in trying to keep track of the always elusive umbrella. Mr. Dandurand will be heard in Irving Berlin's latest popular song hit "When I Lost You."

WHAT THE NEW YORK CRITICS SAY OF THE PLAY.

The piece fairly abounds in what has been termed the "PUNCH" in the drama. Stirling scenes and strong, gripping dramatic situations. "Freckles" scores success by its naturalness. A pathetic little love story with plenty of heart throbs.

She Had Consumption, Was Dying: Now Well

Eckman's Alternative is being used with success in the treatment of Tuberculosis in all parts of the country. Persons who have taken it, improved, gained weight, exhausted night sweats stopped, fever diminished and many recovered. If you are interested to know more about it, we will put you in touch with some who are now well. You can investigate and judge for yourself. Read at Mrs. Gove's recovery.

"Gentlemen: Thinking that perhaps a short history of the remarkable recovery of my mother-in-law (Mrs. Anna Gove) might be of some interest to you, I give the following testimonial: About September 10, 1908, she was taken sick with Catarrhal Pneumonia, and continually grew worse, requiring a trained nurse. Night sweats were so bad that it was necessary to change her clothing once or twice every night; her cough increased and got so bad that everybody expected that she would not live much longer. In January, when Rev. Wm. Berg, of St. Michael's Church, at Silver City, Ind., prepared for her death, he recommended that I get Eckman's Alternative, and see if it would not give her some relief. I then requested the attending physician to give her diagnosis and he informed me that she had Consumption and was beyond all medical aid. When I asked if he thought that it was useless to try the Alternative, he replied that 'No physician could help her any and I could suit myself about it.' So, I immediately had Rev. Wm. Berg to send for a bottle. Practically without hope for recovery, I insisted that she try the Alternative, which she did. I am glad to say that she soon began to improve. Now, she works as hard as ever, weighs twenty pounds heavier than she ever did before she took sick, and is in good health. She finally says she owes her life and health to Eckman's Alternative."

JOS. GRIMMER, (Gove's Alternative) is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Trouble, and in all conditions where Do not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. "FRECKLES" PLEASES DECLARES THE PRESS

The exchanges from cities where "Freckles" has been played are enthusiastic in their praise of the play, players and the beautiful scenic equipment with which the play has been mounted. Full houses seem to have been the rule in nearly all of the other cities and the result will doubtless be the same here, when this dramatization of Gene Stratton-Porter's famous novel of that name comes to the Orpheum Feb. 15, Saturday.

Mother Prostrated.

The funeral of Veronica, the year old little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McGlynn, occurred yesterday morning at 10:30 from the residence of the parents in Tombstone canyon. Rev. Father Meier conducting the services. The little one had been in ill health for two months, an attack of pneumonia following grip. Recovering apparently from the pneumonia attack, the child succumbed almost at once to whooping cough, the latter continuing persistent until pneumonia again developed, from which she died. Mrs. McGlynn, worn with nursing and the grief attending the loss of her child is now on the verge of collapse. The family has resided here only a matter of about three months coming from Colorado. In their affliction they have the sympathy of the community.

Clears Skin of Worst Eruptions

Remarkable Action of a Remedy That Drives Every Speck of Poison From Body.

There is a strange, mysterious power in a remarkable blood medicine that finds its way through the circulation by what is known as Divine selection. The remedy is Swift's Sure Specific, or S. S. S. Science cannot explain just why certain elements in the blood feed the bones, others nourish the hair roots, and so on. And it is this same mysterious action of S. S. S. that attacks all diseased spots, drives away all germs, heals all sores and supplants the activity of disease germs with the powerful healing action of leucocytes. Remarkable testimonials have been written that prove beyond question there is no blood disease but what can be cured by S. S. S. And in all those cases that were treated with mercury, iodine, arsenic, copper and other minerals with no permanent effect, the most astonishing recoveries have been made by S. S. S.

There is not a blood taint of any nature that can remain in a system fortified by this most wonderful remedy, for it is absolutely pure and contains only those elements that the blood naturally assimilates, and which the tissues gratefully accept. It agrees with the most delicate stomach, even in those cases where the use of astringent drugs has so weakened the digestive system that medicine cannot be given. Get a $1.00 bottle of S. S. S. at any drug store and thus be assured of a complete cure of any eruptive blood disease. If your case is peculiar and you desire special advice write to The Swift Specific Co., Medical Dept., 127 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.
